

Espen Lindahl

Software Developer

Profile

Experienced developer working on both front and back-end web solutions using industry standard technologies such as Angular, TypeScript, SQL, and C# as everyday tools.

Experience with internal frameworks and standardization of web-applications for desktop and mobile devices.

Employment History

Web Developer at House Of Control, Trondheim

September 2019 — Present

Developing standardized, ease of use and user-friendly web based ERP solutions for B2B and businesses day to day usage, for desktop and mobile devices. Using industry standard technologies such as Angular, TypeScript, C#, SQL.

Co-Founder at Sharp Raccoon AS, Trondheim

August 2020 — Present

Business management and development in the startup Sharp Raccoon creating an indie game called Rules of Robots with focus on user creation and user interaction using technologies allowing the audience of streamers on websites such as Twitch.tv to interact and influence a streamers game-session in real time by clicking on the screen.

Education

Bachelor's degree, Nord University, Steinkjer

August 2016 — June 2019

Game design and development learning how to work in small teams. Each semester teams develop one game where teachers role play as executives to prepare students for the industry.

Bachelor's degree, Saxion Universities, Enschede

August 2017 — June 2018

Exchange program in the Netherlands, gaining new perspectives on game design. Each quarter teams worked trough the pipeline of developing a complete game

References

References available upon request

Details

Lagmann Dreyers Gate 14
Trondheim, 7068

Norway

(+47) 48009913

espen.lindahl@gmail.com

Date / Place of birth

8. March 1997

Norway

Nationality

Norwegian

Driving license

B, AM

Skills

JavaScript

Angular

HTML & CSS

Git

C#

SQL

Hobbies

Programming,
Web-development, Electrical engineering, 3D printing,

Languages

Bokmål, Norwegian;
Norwegian Bokmål

English